May Chapter Luncheon: Donor Recognition

National Philanthropy Day®

what happened after they won. The NPD luncheon itself provides a great opportunity and these panelists will share how they took advantage of that audience.

National Philanthropy Day nominations take some work, but the payoff can be substantial for fundraising results and donor recognition. Join us to learn from three nonprofit professionals who have written winning nominations about

AFP's Rocky Mountain Philanthropy Institute Is On Our 2018 Horizon

Are you up for a Treasure Hunt? What about heading into uncharted territory? Then do we have the conference for you! Not interested? Then we still have the conference for you.

Each year a group of your peers comes together to read the tea leaves of what's ahead. This year our theme is, you guessed it: Treasure Hunt: Uncharted Territory. There is indeed treasure to be found and we are heading into uncharted territory.

But you won't be alone. During the upcoming conference, we'll share the tools you'll want and need to navigate the future. Because when you're heading into uncharted territory you'll need... a map, a strategy, a guide, tools and equipment, a plan, and maybe even a first aid kit.

Join us for the journey September 13th and 14th!

Help! I Messed Up Our Relationship with A Grant Funder!

Nonprofit staff are only human. Sometimes, despite our efforts, we make mistakes. And sometimes, we fumble our relationships with foundations and grant funders. Join ZIM Consulting at Coffee Chat to learn how to overcome common mistakes and build your relationships with grant funders.

Presenters:

Rebecca Conway, Director of Grants at ZIM Consulting

Katherine Wilson, Grant Writer at ZIM Consulting

Anyone with fundraising duties in their job description is welcome to attend. Coffee Chats are free to everyone and there is no need to register.
